

97TH CONGRESS
1st Session

}

SENATE

{

EXECUTIVE REPT.
No. 97-2

COMPLETED

CONSIDERATION OF FRANK C. CARLUCCI TO BE
DEPUTY SECRETARY OF DEFENSE

ORIGINAL

JANUARY 19, 1981.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. WARNER, from the Committee on Armed Services, submitted the following

REPORT

The Committee on Armed Services, having had under consideration the expected nomination of Mr. Frank C. Carlucci to be Deputy Secretary of Defense, reports favorably thereon and recommends the nomination, when received, be confirmed.

COMMITTEE ACTION

President-elect Reagan has publicly indicated that, upon taking the office of President, he intends to nominate Mr. Carlucci to be Deputy Secretary of Defense. In anticipation of this nomination, the Committee conducted hearings on January 13, 1981 in public session to carefully scrutinize the credentials of Mr. Carlucci. After full consideration, the Committee found Mr. Carlucci to be eminently qualified for the position of Deputy Secretary of Defense. In executive session on January 19, 1981, the Committee voted unanimously to report favorably on the nomination of Mr. Carlucci, when received.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF MR. FRANK C. CARLUCCI

SS No. 192-24-8370.

October 18, 1930—Born Scranton, Pennsylvania.

1944-1948—Preparatory School-Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pennsylvania.

1948-1952—Princeton University, A.B. Public & International Affairs.

1952-1954—U.S. Navy, Lt. (j.g.). Gunnery Officer and ASW Officer, USS Rombach, DE-364.

1954-1955—Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration (1 year of 2 year course).

1955-1956—Jantzen, Inc., Portland, Oregon—Management Trainee.

July 1956—Appointed Foreign Service Officer, Class 7, assigned to Washington, D.C.

October 1957—Economic Officer, Johannesburg, South Africa.
 March 1960—Political Officer, Leopoldville, Congo.
 February 1962—Officer-in-Charge, Congolese Political Affairs, Department of State.
 February 1964—Principal Officer (Consul General), Zanzibar.
 July 1965—Political Officer, subsequently Executive Officer, subsequently Political Counselor, Rio de Janeiro.
 July 1969—Office of Economic Opportunity, Assistant Director for Operations.
 January 1971—Office of Economic Opportunity, Director.
 September 1971—Office of Management and Budget, Associate Director.
 June 1972—Office of Management and Budget, Deputy Director.
 August 1972—President's Special Representative for Disaster Relief, Pennsylvania (Hurricane Agnes—concurrent with OMB responsibilities).
 January 1973—Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Under Secretary.
 September 1974—Promoted to FSO-Career Minister.
 January 1975—Ambassador to Portugal.
 February 1978—Deputy Director of Central Intelligence.

AWARDS AND HONORARY DEGREES

State Department Superior Service Award—1962.
 State Department Superior Honor Award—1969.
 HEW Distinguished Service Award—1974.
 Defense Department Distinguished Civilian Service Award—1977.
 Wilkes College, Honorary Doctorate—1973.
 Kings College, Honorary Doctorate—1973.

ASSOCIATIONS

American Foreign Service Association until 1975.
 National Academy of Public Administration.
 Council on Foreign Relations.

PERSONAL

Married to Marcia McMillan Myers, April 15, 1976. Three children: Karen age 22, Frank age 17, Kristin age 8 months.

QUALIFICATIONS

The Committee questioned Mr. Carlucci at length on a variety of defense issues. (Hearings of the Committee are published separately.)

Mr. Carlucci has served in a number of responsible government positions throughout his career. This Committee believes that his familiarity with the workings of various other government agencies will assist him in his efforts to constructively review and, where necessary, revise the extensive array of policies, programs and procedures of the Department of Defense which require his immediate attention.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Mr. Carlucci has indicated that he will, if confirmed, take the following actions to remove any conflict of interest questions which might be involved with his own financial holdings and his duties as Deputy Secretary of Defense.

Divestment

Mr. Carlucci has satisfied all of the Committee's requirements of divestment or disqualification with respect to all of his interests in organizations which have contracts of $10,000 or more with the Department of Defense.

Resignation from outside positions

Mr. Carlucci has agreed to resign his position as Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, if confirmed.

Termination of compensation and other rights

Mr. Carlucci has indicated that he has no arrangements to receive any compensation from firms doing business with the Department of Defense while he is serving as Deputy Secretary of Defense.

Postemployment arrangements

Mr. Carlucci has indicated that he has no arrangements or plans for employment following his tenure as Deputy Secretary of Defense.

CONCLUSION

The Committee agrees that Mr. Carlucci is fully qualified in all respects to serve as Deputy Secretary of Defense. The Committee by unanimous vote of the full Committee of seventeen Members, recommends that Mr. Carlucci, if nominated, be confirmed as Deputy Secretary of Defense by the U.S. Senate.

O

E N D

2-13-81